NARRATOR

Eastern High Might Go On Overtime Basis

The possibility that Eastern High School, Jeffersontown, may go on an overtime basis next September appears likely because of increased enrollment. County School Superintendent Richard Van Hoog has held talks with the school, completed in 1950, was designed for 1,500 pupils. The present enrollment is 1,665 and probably will reach 1,690 by September.

The increase is partly due to the General Electric plant under construction near Buechel. Fifteen of 22 students enrolled recently in the plant were children from G-E families.

Under the overtime plan, one group of students would attend classes from 7:45 to 12:15 and the other group from 12:30 to 4:45. It would be the first time that such a measure was resorted to in Jefferson County although 900-odd pupils in other parts of the country do it.

Similar measures may be taken in other county schools, Van Hoog said.

Dick Witty, announcer for WLW, Cincinnati, will serve as narrator on the station's weekly program "On the Village" when it salutes Middlebush town at 2 p.m. Sunday, January 20.

Kosmosdale Sailor Makes World Tour

A trip around the world aboard the destroyer USS Whitehouse was recently completed by Charles R. Underwood, metalworker, third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Underwood, Kosmosdale, and husband of Mrs. Imogene Underwood, formerly of Shively.

The trip began his round-the-world tour last May. The cruise was highlighted by a tour of duty in the Korean combat zone, visits to many foreign ports and a stopover in the Panama Canal.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Creek, and at 2 p.m. in the Beulah Presbyterian Church. Interment was in Resthaven Memorial Park.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. E. Morris, pastor of the Jefferson County Methodist Church, of which Mrs. Hummel was a member. He was assisted by the Rev. W. A. Ramsey, retired minister of Beulah Church. Mrs. Hummel previously was a member of that congregation.

Polio Is Subject For Club Meeting

Irish potato production was less than three-fourths of the guide. An acreage of 27,000 was recommended, but farmers produced only 20,000 acres, according to the guide.

Sweet potato production in the state last year was only a fraction of the acreage recommended. Production was 5,500 acres, 55 percent of the guide.

Production of soybeans in Kentucky last year was 86 percent of the recommended guide. Farmers harvested 130,000 acres, compared with a guide of 135,000 harvested.

Production of cotton in Kentucky last year was 90 percent of the recommended guide. Production of 16,000 acres was suggested, but early reports indicated a 1951 output of only 14,000 acres.

With this deficit noted on the part of the cotton farmers, it will need to plan additional production expansions for 1952.

Farmers' production goals established for 1952 call for a total acreage in the nation 4 per cent larger than in 1951. Special emphasis will be placed on feed crops

A LESSON IN COURAGE AND STABILITY

A lesson to the world of an age wherein there have been predictions of a trend toward the irresponsible ways given in the magnificent stand of that gallant sailor, Captain Burt Carlson, whose calm courage attracted attention and demanded respect from all quarters of the globe. His is a case that will live in the memory of man to inspire those who sail the high seas the world over.

Every inch a man, the Captain proved to be as he gave consideration, first for the safety of those for whose lives he was responsible, then for the safety of his ship and its delicate life ship, and its cargo safely into port. He faced his duty and met the unusual challenge fairly and fearlessly to the conclusion of an episode at sea that will live as a memorial to brave seamanship and responsibility for ages to come.

Brave and responsible men are still to be found in this modern age of much reported dereliction. But national safety calls, officially and privately, for the safe and sacrifice of all who serve. It is well to keep this in mind in deep appreciation of values, both material and spiritual. It wasn't the ship that he fought to save, but the manner and the spirit in which he fought an apparently losing fight which will call forth, effectively, the best that men have to give in all the realms of human service.

The modesty and humility, too, which was shown by the gallant skipper in receiving the plaudits of a grateful public should serve to make all men more humble and thus more responsive in their own living in a world that longs for loyalty.

TIME-SAVING TOPIC TURNS UP AGAIN

The perennial fight over "daylight-saving" time is being launched off again at Frankfort. A bill has already been introduced in the Legislature which would outlaw changing of the time in Kentucky.

Bigoted interests are again showing concern over the responsibility of putting an end to "clock-fixing." Although the leader of that element, Senator Leon Shaikene, hasn't indicated any special willingness to accept the challenge that is, on or more, being thrown out by legislators from the far and near.

Those who want fast time for the summer months still can't, or won't, see the reasons why it works a hardship on farmers and causes endless confusion for groups whose members must produce and distribute food and fiber to the nation's households and industries.

All appeals to reason have so far failed to elicit anything more than the turning of a deaf ear to the request for continuance of the normal reckoning, which coincides more with the convenience of rural activities.

We now have the announcement of General Dwight D. Eisenhower that he is a Republican, and that if his party wants him to seek the office of President of the United States, that he will make the race.

The immediate reaction from the embattled camp of Senator Robert Taft of Ohio was not much of a surprise as was the amusing

Like almost any small boy whistling their loudest as they go past the largest and spicier ceremony, Taft and his wife, "Eisenhower has run himself out of the race. He says himself he will not be a candidate. Now let's all root for our boy."

This is, of course, ridiculous as to the whole story.

Wat Eisenhower did was read himself into the Republican Press, idealistic and swashbuckling just to solidify his position under the strict regulations which govern military men.

It is, at least to me, the real significant thing about the Taft-type Republicans' reaction to General Eisenhower's statement. To realize that his significance is so much more important than the Mr. Republican type. So, time after time the past five years, the past ten years, they have refused to elect this type of man.

It is almost pathetic, you are tempted to say sorry, for the poor Old Guard which stubbornly held its ground against the firm demands of the American people. Or, to put it another way, who rashly followed in living an often and hard learned lesson.

Democracy, when you pause to think what would happen if reaction took the place of progress and temptation disappears!

What Kentucky Editors AND OTHERS ARE SAYING

For About Face!

THE word "conversion" means simply "turning around." It means, for example, a change of mind, a change of heart, a change of life.

Eisenhower has run himself out of the race.

NEW HOUSE AT MINIMUM COST

Have you found that many of the house plans you see require a greater investment than you can make in a home at the present time? If so, you will want to examine this house closely. It was designed especially to meet a limited budget.

The kitchen is light and airy, and the arrangement is such that the chimney, which is provided for the kitchen range, has been designed with two flues so that it can be used with a space heater in the living-bedroom. This room has a very desirable arrangement in wall space. In addition, there is a large closet.

The bedroom is larger than is absolutely necessary. If you simply would move the roof from the small stoop, which is provided at present, and put the porch in its place, it would be quite sufficient.

The bathroom is larger than is absolutely necessary. If you simply would move the roof from the small stoop, which is provided at present, and put the porch in its place, it would be quite sufficient.

It is possible that at some future date you may want to add a back porch or a workshop to the house. It would in no way detract from its appearance or structural change. You simply would move the roof from the small stoop, which is provided at present, and put the porch in its place.

You can obtain blueprints for this The Jeffersonian—Farm & Ranch Plan No. 4912 and a handy list of materials by writing to the Farm & Ranch section of the Farm Bureau.

This house is built of wood.

It is a good buy.

Dermatologist Says Sunburn
May Be More Than Skin Deep

Our next county will have a cake contest to be held at Harrods Creek. Date to be announced later. Visit your centers and join the fun. Come and make a new friend. It's a birthday party.

The checker tournament will be held at Griffyton, all checker players are invited to participate.

The town is going full tilt.

Jean Graves reported 20 members. They are planning "Minerrytown" a method of reinforcing their treasurer. (Mrs.)

Vivian Lucas, Supervisor.

Be sure to the immediate skin burn and any resulting reaction from excessive exposure to the sun, there may be consequences after a lapse of months or a year, according to Dr. Lester H. Hirsch.

The acute consequences of a sunburn are dwarfed when we consider some of the disease it affects.

One disease, known as xeroderma pigmentosum, is a rare condition marked by roughness and dryness of the skin. It occurs only in certain families, and is believed to be the result of freckles on the face. At first these are unduly deep; then they form ulcers and the skin around them becomes bladdered, cancerous. Sunlight accelerates these changes.

A second, and another infrequent disease, is called solar dermatitis, which affects the skin.

This disease includes a residual dermatitis at the site of a sunburn, as well as a condition of cancerous growths found more often in people who work outdoors and the like, farm workers.

The length of time spent in the sun, the amount of heat, the body fluids, are factors in the production of the skin and the resultant painful products. Most authorities believe sunburn is not caused by the "explosion" of the powder in the charge. Others believe not because the heat of the sun does not exceed the velocity of sound in air (approximately 1100 feet per second), the major portion of the heat arises from the "explosion" of the "shock wave" or "shock wave" originating with the bullet and the contribution of the expanding gases at the muzzle is negligible. Some authorities also know that, as the velocity of the bullet increases, the loudness of the "crack" or "bang" increases with about 1000 feet per second, after which it continues to increase, but at a slower rate.

Velocity of Bullet Affects
'Bang' from Fired Pistol

The question of what causes the "bang" or noise from a gun has always intrigued a considerable segment of the shocked public.

Most authorities have granted that the noise is made by the "explosion" of the powder in the charge. Others believe not because the heat of the sun does not exceed the velocity of sound in air (approximately 1100 feet per second), the major portion of the heat arises from the "explosion" of the "shock wave" or "shock wave" originating with the bullet and the contribution of the expanding gases at the muzzle is negligible. Some authorities also know that, as the velocity of the bullet increases, the loudness of the "crack" or "bang" increases with about 1000 feet per second, after which it continues to increase, but at a slower rate.

Mr. C. S. Cummings, supervisor of physics and mathematics research, Remington Arms Company, Inc., recently wrote an article in which some experiments on the analysis of the sound from a 22 rim fire cartridge. These results reveal that the greater the velocity of the bullet exceeds the velocity of sound in air (approximately 1100 feet per second), the major portion of the noise arises from the "explosion" of the "shock wave" or "shock wave" originating with the bullet and the contribution of the expanding gases at the muzzle is negligible. Some authorities also know that, as the velocity of the bullet increases, the loudness of the "crack" or "bang" increases with about 1000 feet per second, after which it continues to increase, but at a slower rate.

Child's Eye-Eatomy

One of the greatest potential enemies of a child's eyesight is an uninformed parent, particularly in cases of eye injuries, says the Boston Eye Institute. Many a parent, if a child gets an eye injury, tries hard to see that children are kept out of situations dangerous to their eyes and to keep children from playing with things that might inflict injuries. But many a doing mother or father is results after terrible harm has struck. One having suffered such an injury, the efficacy of the "home remedy" Boracic acid and Argylrol are considered by many to be curatives for eye trouble. But the truth is, in fact, vital time may be wasted in reliance on such products when professional medical treatment should be sought.

An informed parent will enough seek professional aid when there is an obvious eye injury, such as a cut. But an injury that does not seem physically serious is often ignored after an eye injury, such as a chest treatment. Unfortunately, the pain involved in an eye injury is not necessarily an indication of the seriousness of the damage to the external appearance of the eye. A relatively minor blow on the eyeball, for example, may seriously damage the eye without apparent vision without apparent manifestations.

Soletz Russ, Louisville, liquidating remembrances of Tsarist days, continues to rename its products. Gorodetsky, 1900 feet above sea level, in the Pamir Range of the Tadzhik Soviet Republic, is now Stalin Peak. Near by, Kaufman, second highest in the country, is now Lenin Peak. Other peaks looming large for those who see behind the Iron Curtain have been renamed Mao Tse-tung, Lin Piao, and Zhou Enlai, and Thirtieth of October (to honor the date of the 1917 revolution which brought the Bolsheviks to power).
